

New Times Article: Did you know...

• You can tell the sex/gender of a turtle by the sound it makes; males grunt, females hiss. • Tottenham hotspur didn't have a single player sent off in a football league match between October 27th 1928 and December 4th 1965. • In early days of film making, the people who worked on the sets were called moviemakers. The films were called motion pictures. • Ten countries border Brazil in South America; Ecuador and Chile are the only two countries that do not share a border with Brazil. • A greenfly born on a Tuesday can be a grandparent by Friday. • One of the American presidents William Henry Harrison gave the longest inaugural speech of two hours, it was on a cold day, he caught pneumonia and died afterwards. • And John F. Kennedy was the first U.S president to become catholic. • An insect named water strider walks on water without breaking the surface because of the high surface tension of water, resulting from the collective strength of its Hydrogen bonds. • Only female wasps, bees and mosquitoes sting. • In musical notes, a housefly hums in the middle octave key of F. • You use an average of 43 muscles for a frown and you use an average of 17 muscles for a smile and it is said that two thousand frowns creates one wrinkle. • In Ancient china, criminals who attacked travelers had their noses cut off. • Aden, from the garden of Eden in the bible means pleasure .

Ends